TIGER STRIPE

1951

Dedication

Dedication

We the annual staff of 1951, dedicate this issue of the "Tiger Stripe" to Mrs. Brown, the teacher who has been at Chatfield the longest, and who has helped us so much with her good and timely advice. This year, we Seniors feel very proud and fortunate in having Mrs. Brown as our class sponsor.

Mrs. Eula Brown

She was born, reared, and educated in the neighboring county of Seneca. Eula Ruth Armitage came to Crawford County in 1931 as a teacher in the Chatfield High School.

Marrying a local merchant in 1935, she became Mrs. Milton Brown and settled in our community where she has continued to reside and work for its best interests. She is the mother of two teen-age children.

During World War II, Mrs. Brown responded to the call for qualified teachers to fill the vacancies during the emergency and since the death of her husband, has continued in the teaching field. She is a graduate of Attica High School and Heidelberg College, Tiffin:

Class Poem

Here's to the class of '51;
Six in number are we.
I will tell you about them
If you will bear with me.

Alice Heydinger is our class President
With dark and curly hair.
When there's any kind of game going on,
Alice is sure to be there.

Martha Feichtner is quite a girl;
She is our class Treasurer.
Her winning ways and pleasant smile,
Make meeting her a pleasure.

There's Edna Ruth, our musical gal
Can play the piano well;
She's always ready for work or fun,
And for a friend she's really swell.

Lucille Wurm played the clarinet
In the orchestra and band;
She's a very quiet, charming girl,
And we really think she's grand.

John Beal, our handsome boy
Sings bass and tenor too;
He's very badly "henpecked,"
With five girls to tell him what to do.

To Mrs. Brown, our sponsor dear,
We owe our many thanks;
She's always been so kind and good,
In spite of all our pranks.

And last of all is poor me;
Mary Brose is my name.
You can see at writing poetry,
I have no claim to fame.

So here's to the class of '51,
And though our number's few,
We'll try to do the best we can
In everything we do.

Senior Class Will

We, the members of the Senior Class, being stable of mind, strong in body, and having wonderful foresight, do hereby publish this, our last will and testament.

TO THE SCHOOL, we leave our fond memories and intelligence.

TO THE TEACHERS, we give students who will study much harder than we have.

TO MR. TAYLOR, we bequeath our good dispositions.

TO MRS. BROWN, we will a better Senior Class to sponsor.

TO MRS. DURBIN, we leave fond memories of the days when we wanted to study out of a book in Home Economics.

TO MISS SMITH, we leave better Glee Clubs.

TO MR. MEFFLEY, a basketball team of seven foot men.

TO MR. GILBERT, we wish happiness of married life.

TO MISS REINLEIN, we leave students who love to take tests and who have good class attitudes.

I, John Beal will my bass voice to Dorothy Auck who, I am sure, needs a lower one to sing soprano.

I, Edna Ruth will my ability to get along with the teachers to Jim Haviland.

I, Lucille Wurm will my paper dolls to Zona Eicher, provided she makes good use of them.

I, Mary Brose will my driver's license to Madelyn Massie, provided that she makes worthy use of it, and obeys all rules of driving.

To Ruth Leonhart, Alice leaves her front seat in classes, so she behaves and hides the rest of the kids in the rear.

I, Martha Feichtner will my ability to get away with things without getting caught to Sam Gerhart.

TO THE JUNIOR CLASS, we give the dignified name of Seniors and all the activities, miseries, memories and plans that we, as Seniors, have had.

TO THE SOPHOMORE CLASS, we leave our abilities and good looks.

TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS, we will fond memories of initiation and the desire to be a quiet group that doesn't giggle so much.

We hope these wishes will be carried out to the best of your ability.
Witnessed and sealed this day in May of 1951.

Senior Class History

Twelve years ago, in September, 1939, eight small, innocent, yet enthusiastic, boys and girls walked proudly up the path to Chatfield School to start their first year seeking an education. With our lunch boxes, pencils, and tablets we entered the huge, unfamiliar building. Frightened, but excited with interest, we managed to get through the first day. Three of these eight have gone twelve years together. Those who made up our first class roll were: Shirley Crum, Alice Heydinger, Lucille Wurm, Mary Brose, Ruth Rothhaar, Robert Levans, Ramon Smith, and Edna Ruth. Miss Mary Louise Williams was our teacher.

We enjoyed coming to school our second year because we knew our way around the building and had learned to know each other. We lost Alice Heydinger and Robert Levans during the summer but gained Gail Spore and Virgil Holman. Miss Audrey Heinlein (later Mrs. Luginbuhl) was our teacher.

Under the guidance of Miss Wilma Clutter (later Mrs. Walimire) we went through our third grade year. We lost Shirley Crum and Ruth Rothhaar.

Clem Studer, Bill Campbell, and Melvin Heckert joined us in the fourth grade. Our teacher was Mrs. Luginbuhl.

Another year rolled around and we became old enough to call ourselves fifth graders. Miss Pauline Green led us through this year. Now we lost Bill Campbell and gained Martha Feichtner toward the end of the year.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Walimire we got through the sixth grade. This year Esther Harigle, Carol Maudsley, and Joann Penn joined our class.

After vacation we came back as frightened seventh graders. This year we took our seats upstairs. We wanted to be like other classes, so we elected officers. They were: President, Joann Penn; Vice-President, Clem Studer; Secretary, Edna Ruth; Treasurer, Lucille Wurm; Student Council Representative, Ramon Smith; and News Reporter, Carol Maudsley. On December 18, we held a Christmas party after school. Anna Brown and John Beal were added to the roll and during the year so was Paul Butt. Our sponsor was Mrs. Dunbar.

Our officers elected in the eighth grade were: President, Edna Ruth, Vice-President, Martha Feichtner; Secretary, Lucille Wurm; Treasurer, Joann Penn; Student Council Representative, Ramon Smith; and News Reporter, Paul Butt. We had various parties during the year. Our sponsor was Mr. C. C. Richard.

Ah, at last! We're in high school. Before we knew what was what, on October 3, we were initiated by the Seniors. Although we were scared and a few things didn't taste too good, we survived and had a good laugh afterward. Alice Heydinger and Virginia Beattie added their names to our roll. We elected John Beal as our leader and Lucille Wurm as his assistant. Alice Heydinger was chosen to keep our notes and report our news. Paul Butt was our Representative to the Student Council, and we put Edna Ruth in charge of our small funds. In October we sponsored a roller skating party for the whole high school and gave the Seniors a farewell party in May. At the close of the school term we elected Paul Butt and Alice Heydinger as May Day attendants. Mrs. Durbin was our sponsor.

Still seeking more education we came back for our Sophomore year, with a new member, Carl Clark. We chose the following for our class officers: Alice Heydinger, President; Ramon Smith, Vice-President; Lucille Wurm, Secretary; Paul Butt, Treasurer; Carl Clark, Student Council Representative; and John Beal, News Reporter. In October, 1948, Paul Butt withdrew and Edna Ruth was appointed to take his place as Treasurer. Virginia Beattie also withdrew during the year. On March 25, we gave the high school a St. Patrick's Party. The ninth grade helped us give a festival on July 6, 1949. Mr. Weber was our sponsor.

Seven members entered the Junior year, with Mrs. Brown for an advisor. Election of officers was the first thing we did. They were: John Beal, President; Ramon Smith, Vice-President; Alice Heydinger, Secretary; Lucille Wurm, Treasurer; and Edna Ruth, Student Council Representative. Our class rings were ordered in September and received around the first of November. September 16 we sponsored a hay ride for the high school. We presented the play "Mama's Baby Boy," with the help of the class of 1950, on November 4. On December 20, we gave the Christmas party for the high school. On April 28, we gave the Junior-Senior Banquet at Richland Recreation Center, Mansfield, Ohio. "April Showers" was our theme. A theater party followed the banquet. We also chose our class colors, blue and white; class flower, white carnation; and class motto, "Success Awaits At Labor's Gates." We helped the Seniors to present their play, "The Daffy Dills," in May. The Sophomore Class helped us present our festival July 20, 1950. Alice Heydinger and John Beal were elected May Day attendants. John Beal, Edna Ruth, and Martha Feichtner were elected to the National Honor Society.

Seniors at last! We elected class officers for the last time. Those whom we chose to serve us are: Alice Heydinger, President; Mary Brose, Vice-President; Edna Ruth, Secretary; Martha Feichtner, Treasurer; and John Beal, Student Council Representative. Right away we started planning to initiate the Freshmen, which we accomplished October 6. Ramon Smith quit in October which left us with a mere six to graduate. On October 19, we journeyed to Fostoria to the Dicken Studio to see which one could break the camera. We helped the Juniors present "The Darling Brats" November 3, 1950. We had many class meetings to pick our name cards, invitations, caps and gowns, and speakers. They are: Reverend F. A. Firestone for Baccalaureate and Reverend David N. Roller for Commencement. Baccalaureate is to be held Sunday May 20, and Commencement on Wednesday, May 23, 1951. Our sponsor again this year is Mrs. Brown.

Now the history of the class of '51 must come to an end and we will have to bid "farewell" to our school days. I am sure that these days will be remembered as the happiest ones of our lives.

Class Prophecy

One day last week, while up in our attic, I found an old lamp. I had never seen it before, so I took it down stairs and asked Mother from where it had come. She said that it was there when we moved in.

I thought surely if anyone wanted it, they would have called for it before this, so I decided to polish it, as it looked like an antique.

I took it to the kitchen and as I scoured it, I was wishing it were a magic lamp like that of Aladdin. Imagine my surprise when a strange creature appeared before me and said, "I am the genie of the future. Step upon my magic carpet and we shall fly to the 'Land of Tomorrow'." Before I knew I had even moved, I had stepped upon the small piece of carpet he was standing on, and we were flying through the air at a great rate of speed.

Before long, we came to a gate. It had a number on it, 1961, and above it, across the top of the gate were the words, "Success Awaits At Labor's Gates." I was astonished, as this is our class motto.

The genie opened the gate with some magic word, and we were soon inside. The genie said that anyone I thought of, I should see.

The first person that came to my mind was Mary Brose. Immediately, like a mushroom springing up, there appeared before me a huge building. I went inside and found it was a children's hospital. Seated at the head nurse's desk, looking so proud and dignified in her starched white uniform was Mary. She showed me through the hospital and told me of the wonderful things they were doing for sick and crippled children.

I went outside again and the building disappeared.

Next I thought of Martha Feichtner. At once there appeared a large school building. I entered and went into the Superintendent's office, and asked if Martha were there. The Superintendent, a very handsome, well-groomed man, said she was and that Martha was one of the most efficient teachers they had ever had in the school. She taught the sixth grade. I was certain, as he talked, that he had more than a business interest in Martha, and sure enough, when I saw her, the first thing I noticed was the beautiful diamond on her finger. So I am sure if I had gone a couple of years farther into the "Land of Tomorrow," I would have found her, not only an efficient schoolteacher, but also a happy wife.

The next person I thought of was Alice Heydinger. Quick as a flash, there appeared a large tennis court. There were a great number of people around, and I heard a man announcing over a loud speaker, "The finals for the tennis championship of the world have been completed. The winner is Miss Alice Heydinger."

Next I wondered about John Beal. Immediately I saw a huge truck coming toward me. When it stopped the driver stepped out, and sure enough, it was John. He said he was President of a Coast to Coast Trucking Company, but he still liked to drive one of the trucks whenever he had time.

Lucille Wurm then entered my thoughts, and there before me was a beautiful home. Two very pretty little girls, about five years of age, who apparently were twins, were playing in the yard. I rang the doorbell and sure enough, the woman who answered was Lucy. She said she had been married for eight years and her husband was a dairyman. Her home was so beautifully furnished, I knew that he must be very successful.

As I went out again, I wondered if it would be possible for me to see what I would be doing in 1961, and immediately I was no longer on the magic carpet, but was seated at a desk which had on it a card marked "Head Librarian." I was surrounded by shelves and shelves of books; more books than I had ever dreamed of. I opened one and the stamp inside read "Chicago Public Library."

Just then I heard my Mother say, "My stars, Edna, are you still fussing with that old lamp?" And there I was, back in our kitchen, scouring the lamp. The genie was gone, and no matter how hard I rubbed the lamp, he never appeared again.

Most everyone thinks I imagined all this. I even wonder myself. Time will tell, but I'm sure that if we all work hard, we will find "Success Awaits At Labor's Gates."

The Girls' Glee Club

This year found the girls singing for the Spring Concert, the Christmas Program, and at Attica.

The Boys' Glee Club

The boys have improved a great deal from last year. They sang at the Spring Concert and also at Attica. At Christmas time, they sang for the Christmas Program.

Mixed Chorus

G. A. A.

For the year of 1950-'51 the following officers were elected: Lucille Wurm, President; Alice Heydinger, Vice-President; Rowenna Volk, Secretary; Mary Brose, Treasurer.

We had swimming parties at the Y. M. C. A. at Bucyrus, went bowling, initiated the Freshman girls and had a supper-party at the schoolhouse.

We played other schools in sports. We sold pop, popcorn, candy and potato chips at the home basketball games. We also made posters of the home games during the year to distribute around town.

In all sports we chose sides and played for G. A. A. The losing side usually gave the winning side a supper at the schoolhouse.

The best part of every-day--lunch time.

Have you noticed how healthy the Chatfield students are? Our county health nurse, Mrs. Marie Douglas helps to keep us that way.

Athletics

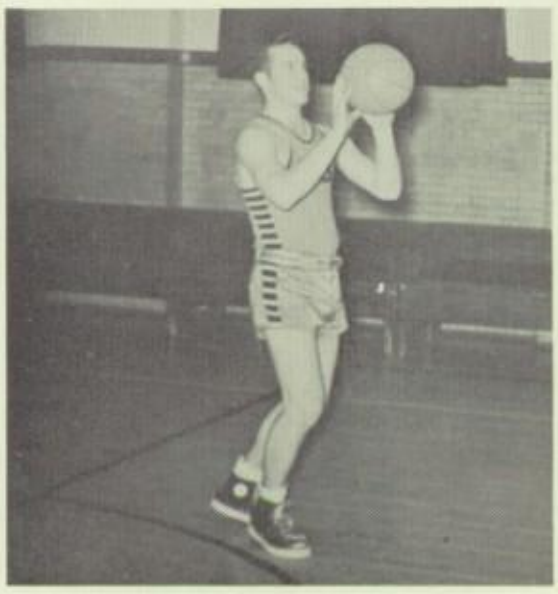
High School Basketball Team

There were no Seniors on our team this year so these boys will all be back to play for Chatfield again. They have shown their potential strength in the games with Leesville, Lykens, and also in the tournament. Because of the keen competition that there was in the county this year our season ended with two wins and eighteen losses.

These boys should be able to make it tough for the teams in the county next year.

VICTOR WURM
Rebound artist with three good years ahead of him.

CLEM STUDER
High scorer and good rebound man.



SAM GERHART
Best floor player in the county.

DWIGHT ROTHHAAR
Aggressive and a good driver.

JOE KREIM
A team player with a good set shot.

JERRY HEYDINGER
Scrappy guard who came along as the season progressed.

Here are Dorothy Auck and Madelyn Massie, who lead the cheering section for the high school.

The Junior High needs cheering too. Here are the girls who lead--Ruth Schwemley, Dorothy Gerhart, and Margaret Ross.

Junior High B. A. A.

Junior High Basketball Team

The Junior High started practice the first week in November when twenty boys reported. We had a good season winning eight and losing two.

The boys carrying most of the load this year have been Donald Kalb and Lyle Shock, forwards; Donald Auck, center; Carl Kalb and Robert Kalb, guards; while Roger Long, Roger Rothhaar and Kenneth Tobin gave us needed reserve strength.
